SCHEDULE TO CONJUNCTION AGREEMENT

Between Listing Agent : afa And Sub-Agent : IEA

When the Sub-Agent is deemed by the Listing Agent to be the effective cause of the sale through IEA system clientele introduction, the Listing Agent will pay the Sub-Agent the below shares of all commissions and bonuses received from the seller.

1) Amount of commissions and bonuses

The below shares of commissions and bonuses represent clientele introductory fees.

a) Commissions

50% share of all sales commissions paid by the seller. The rate of those commissions is the rate agreed on by the seller when it comes to a sale to a foreign buyer.

b) Bonuses

50% share of all bonuses the seller may possibly decide to grant to selling agents. The Listing Agent will keep the Sub-Agent informed of the amounts of those bonuses.

2) When payable

Commissions and bonuses are payable by the seller as follows :

a) Commissions

- 50% upon the confirmation of an unconditional contract by the seller's solicitor;
- 50% upon settlement of the contract.

b) Bonuses

Bonuses are entirely (100%) payable upon the confirmation of an unconditional contract by the seller's solicitor.

c) Effective payment of the shares of commissions and bonuses between the Listing Agent and the Sub-Agent

The above shares of commissions and bonuses are in principle owed and directly payable by the Listing Agent to IEA system within 14 days of the Listing Agent receiving their payment by the seller. Therefore, they are not due to the Sub-Agent in case of their effective payment to IEA system by the Listing Agent within that 14 day delay,

However, on the contrary, they are due to the Sub-Agent if their payment to IEA system has not occurred within the above 14 days. In such default in payment of the shares owed to IEA System, which the Sub-Agent is part of, the Sub-Agent will be legally fully substituted to IEA system and will be entitled, after another 14 day delay, in accordance with the present Conjunction Agreement, to issue an invoice to the Listing Agent for the payment to the Sub-Agent of those shares of commissions and bonuse. The same 14 day delay applies to the payment of that invoice.
